Dear Paul:

My apologies regarding Edward Bishop. That situation took place prior to my arrival here and I was not aware you hadn't been filled in regarding the final result.

As I understand it, the legal action is now complete, and Mr. Bishop was convicted on the state charges. He was sentenced to 8 to 10 years and is currently incarcerated at MCI Cedar Junction at Walpole, Massachusetts.

All federal charges were dropped in lieu of the state conviction.

Hope this clears things up for you!

Cordially,

David J. Adams

The Scoutmaster of a troop at Hanscom Air Force Base who's accused of sexually assaulting two troop members is back in federal court today. A hearing is being held to determine if Edward Bishop should be released on bail while awaiting trial. Bishop, a retired Air Force Master Sergeant from Acton, is charged with transporting minors across state line in order to engage sex with them. His alleged victims, two boys, who told investigators Bishop sexually assaulted them at several locations, including his office and his home, as well as at relatives homes in Connecticut. Bishop has been held without bail since his arrest on Tuesday.

Scoutmaster in boy-molest rap

By SHELLEY MURPHY

A RETIRED Air Force sergeant and scoutmaster was accused yesterday of repeatedly molesting two teen-age boys who were members of his troop at Hanscom Air Force Base.

Edward Bishop, 53, of 151 Parker St., Acton, allegedly lured the 13- and 14-year-old boys to his in-laws' Connecticut home on two separate occasions in the fall of 1987 and performed oral sex on them, according to an FBI affidavit.

During interviews Friday and Monday, the boys — now 15 and 16 — told the FBI Bishop sexually assaulted them at Troop 33 Boy Scout House at Hanscom AFB, at his Bedford office, his home and in his truck.

The FBI and the Office of Special Investigations at Hanscom AFB are investigating allegations that more Boy Scouts were molested by Bishop, according to sources.

Bishop, the married father of a 21-year-old daughter and a 23-year-old son, was arrested by FBI agents yesterday morning at Analytical Systems Engineering Corp. (ASEC) in Burlington, where he worked as corporation security manager.

Suspect had a 'special interest in disabled teens'

By PATRICIA MANGAN

A 53-YEAR-OLD Acton man, arrested yesterday on charges of sexually molesting two teen-agers, was described as a dedicated Boy Scout leader with a special interest in disabled youngsters.

"It's beyond me that this could happen," said Ron Rogers, scout executive with the Minuteman Council, which covers eastern Middlesex County for the Boy Scouts of America.

Edward Bishop, 151 Parker St., was charged with transporting minors across state lines to engage in sex. The boys said Bishop sexually assaulted them at Troop 33 Boy Scout House at Hanscom Air Force Base, his Bedford office, his home and in his truck.

Rogers said Bishop, scoutmaster of a group sponsored by Hanscom AFB, will be suspended immediately from the scouting program. Rogers said he often saw Bishop when he stopped in

He was suspended from his job in the wake of the allegations — which include claims that the boys were repeatedly molested at ASEC by Bishop.

Attorney Daniel Small, who represents ASEC, sealed yesterday charges the council office to pick up program materials.

"He seemed very committed to scouting," he said. "This is really a surprise to me."

He said Bishop headed a group of about 15 boys, aged roughly 11 to 18, many of whom were disabled. He said the youngsters were children of both military personnel and civilians.

"Many of them had special needs, both physical and mental," said Rogers.

Rogers said Bishop had worked with the Boy Scouts program from the early 1980s. He said scout leaders normally meet with their groups once a week. He also said sleep-over trips normally require the presence of at least two adults.

Neighbors of Bishop reacted with surprise when they heard of the charges.

"He's a very nice old man," said a woman who did not wish to be identified. "He was very friendly and he came over to visit when we moved in."

Bishop with transporting minors from Massachusetts to Connecticut to engage in sexual activity.

The neighbor said she often saw teen-age boys at the Bishop house, "working on his lawn or walking his dog."

A Hanscom spokesman said Bishop retired from the Air Force in February 1980.

McGinty, who represents Bishop, said it was "fair" for the government to hold Bishop without bail. Bishop, who has prior criminal records, served in the Connecticut Guard for four years, joined the Air Force for years, retiring in 1980 as a master sergeant.

The 14-year-old claimed Bishop asked him to help him move furniture at his wife's parents' home during a weekend in October 1987, then assaulted him in an upstairs bedroom.

In an affidavit, FBI special Agent Gerald Downes said the claimed Bishop performed oral sex on "approximately 60 times over the next few months and continued to molest him through this year."

The 13-year-old boy Bishop brought him to the same Connecticut home on the pretext of covering his in-laws' swimming pool for the winter, other outdoor chores, sexually assaulted him, an upstairs bedroom. Downes reported.

The boy, said Bishop, molested him on approximately 30 occasions, including the next few months, and continued to molest him through May of this year, Downes said.
